The Person With Romantic Beliefs And Attitudes

I love to discover the meaning of words. This word "Romantic" embodies a world of mysteries worth looking into. We'll venture into Merriam Webster to make some of our discoveries. —Additional Cap's are my expressions!

ROMANTIC: (Adj) 1. Consisting of or Resembling a Romance. (Already, I'm seeing how romance can be resembled at times, even imagined, by things that happen between Romantics that may cause a spark of interest, giving rise to hope of Real Romance by one or the other, or even In Both Hearts).

2. Having no basis in fact: Imaginary! (Now the Romantic has allowed himself/herself to imagine, Beyond Established Facts).

3. Impractical in conception or plan: Visionary! (The Romantic can be able to visualize what has not been looked into practically, or with any planning).

4. Marked by the Imaginative or Emotional Appeal of what is heroic, adventurous, remote, mysterious or idealized. (The Romantic is an Idealist).

5. Having an inclination for Romance. Responsive to the appeal of what is idealized, heroic or adventurous. Marked by Expressions of Love or Affection. (...She had Romantic Feelings for him. Or He had Romantic feelings for her...).

Now we will look at Romantic as a noun, in Merriam Webster.

ROMANTIC: A romantic person, trait, or component.

Now from Dictionary.com.

ROMANTIC ...Characterized by a preoccupation with Love or by the Ide-alizing of Love OR ONE'S BE-

LOVED. (Now the idealizing is focused on the person, who may not feel comfortable, or may feel put up on a pedestal. now the problems begin).

(Now we must come back down to the Reality of people and things between them).

For additional insight, we will go to Urban Dictionary:

Hopeless Romantic... they're not to be confused with stalkers or creepy because that's not what a hopeless romantic is. All hopeless romantics are Idealists, dreamers. They make love look like An Art Form with all the romantic things they do for their Special Someone.

The hopeless romantic is not the same as a hopeless flirter. A hopeless romantic dreams of Who They Will Spend The Rest Of Their Life With and what the Two of them will do Together. They dream of being loved But Also Of Loving Somebody.

They don't just want someone to hold them. They also want to hold Someone.

They realize that Love isn't just about one person but both people. They are hopelessly in love with being loved And Loving Back.

Many people have this definition of a hopeless romantic all wrong...a hopeless romantic is NOT Someone who can't get anyone and they die lonely. It is Someone Who Is Truly in love With True Love.

They Believe That There Is Only ONE Person out there For You. They like to be Adventurous and Spontaneous With THIS Person.

Hopeless Romantic really reminds me of movies like Serendipity, where They Find Little Signs That They Are To Be Together.

Hopeless romantics are NOT hopeless per-say, But Very True, Caring People. They Are "NOT MADE FOR TODAY'S STANDARDS", Sadly.

They have Loved Sincerely at one point in their life, Discovered What Love Feels Like, and can't understand why it was not Returned in the Same Form.

What Hopeless Romantics expect in any relationship is a full return for their effort and Caring, to be loved as much as they Love.

They are few and far between in today's life, and usually get Let Down in the long run, even though they gave all they had to give, Love, money, Time, housing, belongings.

Hopeless Romantics Give 100% ALL THE TIME, And hope for the same in return.

Be Of Good Cheer, One day you will Be Appreciated and Loved just as much as You Yourself have Loved!
