Low self esteem tends toward premature relationships

Dear Carrie, As I Write to You Today, The Snow Continues To Fall, Here In The Western State Of Washington, And Covers Everything With It's Blanket Of White.

The Western Hemlock is now White and Evergreen as well, So Close To Christmas.

This Month, My Beloved Daughter, I Want To Share With You Some Wisdom Concerning Self Esteem.

It Is So Important That You Remember Your Incredible Worth, And Never Let The World Treat You As Worthless.

Remember Your Creator Has Fashioned You In His Own Image (Triune or Three Important Parts Of Your Being, Spirit, Soul And Finally Body)

You Are Also Being Transformed Into HIS Likeness (Being Made Like JESUS Christ GOD'S SON)!

People today are battling the problems of low self esteem more than any other time in known history!

Women do more and more to paint and decorate Themselves, in hopes of at least being noticed by some man. Even if the man would not be Their Choice if They had a chance at someone more suitable.

They sometimes fear that if they lose Their chance with this one, They will never have another chance coming, with a better, more perfect match for Them. But Patience is a Virtue!

People Lock-On-To someone of interest from the opposite sex., And They are not interested in hearing the Insight of Others, not even Family members or Close Friends.

Before long Their whole life is Overshadowed by Their Own Choices. They don't feel like They can find any candle with light for Their Soul out there.

They find someone, or someone finds Them, In A Low Time In Their Lives. This someone is able to meet some of Their needs, so They Compromise and often Sacrifice the rest of Their Goals, for Their Own lives.

They do not understand that the Mate that GOD has for Them will be A Better Companion, more able to meet Their Deepest Needs, and Respect Their Goals.

Because Of Their Low Self Esteem, They began to make questionable decisions. Before long, They have more problems making any Good decisions to better Themselves, in the one life that They were given by Creator.

Low Self Esteem is caused by Our loss of Confidence in Ourselves. We seem to Forget that We are Made in the Image and Likeness of Our Creator GOD.

Why settle for less than GOD Created You to Be, and To Have in this, Your Life.

Life is so short, and before You know it You are getting older., and have less time for changing Your mind.

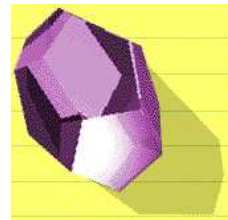

The Verses below are a Researched and Amplified version of KJV, to get a better overall understanding of the Riches within the King James English Version of The Bible/with the help of Strong's Hebrew and Greek Dictionaries.

'Be Mindful Of, Recognize and Remember now Self, Your Creator in the warm hours of your youth, before the evil days come Naturally or Morally upon You, or the years of sunset draw near, arriving upon You, and touching You, when You will say, 'I have no pleasure or desire in these days'.

'While the Brilliant Sun or The Light or the Moon, or the rolling and blazing Stars be not dimmed and darkened, or the clouds return after the rain showers' (Ecclesiastes 12:1-2).

As I Look out into the World Today, I see many Young Girls, and Women who want to be Stars of Glamour and Sex appeal. But that is an Image that is not maintained for life. Go with me now to Proverbs 31:10, 28-31.

'Who Can Be So Fortunate To Find, attain and acquire A Virtuous Woman, for Her Worth is far above round Pearls, Rubies, And Diamonds.'

' Her Son grows up and Calls Her Blessed, Straight, Level Headed, Honest, Righteous, Prosperous; and Even Her Husband Boasts, Raves, Celebrates and Praises Her!'

'Many Daughters Have Done Virtuously, but You have Excelled and Ascended above them all.'

' Charm and Favor can be deceitful and Glamorous Beauty Vain with emptiness, but the Woman who is Morally Reverent of The LORD (Self Existent And Eternal )(Creator) GOD), She Herself, Will Be Praised and Celebrated'

'Give Her the Fruit and Reward of Her Hands, And Let Her Own Works and Actions Praise and Show Her Off At The City Center (Welcome Her As Renowned, Or Well Known for Her Good Deeds).
